

The Week In Society.

THE MUSIC THAT CARRIES.

I've tolled with the men the world has blest.
And I've tolled with the men who failed.
I've tolled with the men who strove with zest.
And I've tolled with the men who waited.
And this is the tale my soul would tell.
As it drifts over the harbor bar:
The sounds of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lift of a laugh rings far.

The men who were near the grumbler's side,
O, they heard not a word he said;
The sound of a song rang far and wide,
And they hearkened to that instead.
Its tones were sweet as the tales they tell
Of the rise of the Christmas star:
The sounds of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lift of a laugh rings far.

Announcements.

Master Marion Kittenger will entertain on Monday at his home on South Thirteenth street, in celebration of his fourth birthday. Invitations were issued this week.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning in regular weekly session at the assembly room in the Carnegie library. The program for the morning is:

1. Mortuary Customs and Beliefs—Mrs. George Langstaff, Jr.
2. Tomba, Book of the Dead—Mrs. Mildred Davis.
3. Festivals and Ceremonies—Miss Mattie Fowler.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order of Railway Conductors will have a Harvest Home dance at the Eagles' building on Tuesday evening.

The Clives department of the Woman's club will meet on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the club building. It is the regular time for meeting changed from the first and third Mondays.

The Knights of Columbus will entertain with a dance on Wednesday evening at their new hall in the Campbell building. It has just been fitted up and the appointments are very handsome. The dance is an invitation affair.

The Magazine club will not meet on Thursday, the regular time, as it is Thanksgiving Day. The next meeting will be held on December 12.

The Crescendo club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the Woman's club house. It will be a musical recital by former pupils of Miss Nowell and members of the club. Miss Adeline Morton is the leader for the afternoon.

The Kalosophic club will meet on Friday morning at the Woman's club house. The program to be presented is:

1. Ephesus and the Ephesians—Miss Clara Park.
2. The Temple of Diana—Miss Rella Coleman.
3. The Corinthians—Miss Lula Reed.
4. Current Events—Miss Hallie Hisey.

An Opportunity for Thanksgiving.

The woman's board of the Home of the Friendless will keep open house after their usual custom on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. A slight deviation will be made this year, however, in the hours; instead of from 2:30 to 5, the time will be extended until 6 o'clock. This is done that the men of the city who have been such generous friends of "the Home" may be enabled to attend. The board is anxious to receive all its friends.

The annual Thanksgiving reception is always an event of interest at the Home and this year it is hoped to be even more largely and representatively attended. It is the best place possible to go and get a regular Thanksgiving glow in your heart. You meet people grateful and gracious for the slightest favor done to the Home. You see little children happy, care-free and romping, who would not otherwise be so. And you realize as you would not otherwise do, that this institution is something to be proud of; and you are glad to have a part ownership in so good a thing; and you want to do more than you have yet done for it. Go and see if you do not. The woman's board most cordially invites the general public to attend, and all donations will be gladly received. However, if you are in doubt, give money, it can always be put into immediate circulation out there.

Entre Nous and P. D. C. Clubs for Visitors.

Miss Corinne Winstead is hostess to the Entre Nous club and the P. D. C. club this afternoon at her home on Washington street, in honor of her guest, Miss Willie Blanche Asher, of Atlanta, Ga., and of Mrs. Lester Fossick, of Atlanta, the guest of Miss Clara Thompson. The tallies are miniature turkeys and the Thanksgiving idea is prettily featured in the luncheon appointments. It is strictly a club party.

Sans Souci Club.

Mrs. Hughes McKnight entertained the Sans Souci club on Friday afternoon at her apartments in the Thompson Flats on Washington street. It was an attractive club affair with a few visitors to fill club vacancies. The club prize was won by Miss Clara Thompson. Mrs. Lillard Sanders received the visitors' prize. A pretty two-course luncheon was served after the game. Mrs. Lester Fossick, of Atlanta, Ga., was the out-of-town guest.

Attractive Afternoon Tea.

The Misses Rieke gave a pretty Afternoon Tea on Thursday from 3 to 5 o'clock at their home, 528 Kentucky avenue. The rooms were effectively decorated throughout with white chrysanthemums in vases. In the dining-room the white and violet motif was carried out in the appointments of the tables. The centerpiece was a silver candelabrum with white shaded candles. Silver bowls of violets were at either end of the table and the white mints were in silver bon bon dishes. The punch was violet colored.

Miss Claribel Rieke and Miss Carrie Rieke received in the parlor. With them was Mrs. Elizabeth Larrue, of Elizabethtown, the guest of Mrs. I. D. Wilcox. In the dining-room were Mrs. Louis M. Rieke, Mrs. Lillie Rieke Boyd and Mrs. John W. Scott. Mrs. Melville V. Cherry poured the chocolate and was assisted by Mrs. Clara Rieke Burnett.

Dr. Will's Lecture of Civic Importance.

Dr. Thomas Elmer Will, secretary of the American Forestry association, of Washington, D. C., will lecture here on Friday evening, November 29, at the Woman's club building. Dr. Will comes under the auspices of the Paducah Forestry association and his lecture will be entirely free. He is of national reputation and an exceptionally able man. He is an earnest and convincing speaker and handles his facts in an entertaining manner. He has done great work for the forests of the country and wherever he has spoken has aroused a deep interest in the subject. He is now touring the west and south and is greeted everywhere by large crowds. Paducah's reception of him should be commensurate with the national position of the man. The city should be represented by her officials and coming officials as well as leading men. The Park Commissioners, Board of Public Works, Public School and Alumni association should all be represented. If the national forest preservation is too broad a subject for us, Dr. Will may throw much light on our local needs in the way of tree planting and preservation and our coming parks, boulevards and features of greater Paducah.

Society on Skates.

Paducah just now is in the keen enjoyment of a Skating Rink. Just how she has managed to exist without this chiefest of a modern city's pleasures many have wondered all along; and now that the want has been realized the wonder is still more unending. Ever since the opening night the floor of the big Auditorium has been crowded each evening, and many of the society girls are giving their days, too, in the unwearying practice that alone brings perfection. The skating fad is not confined to the recklessly young; either; many may be seen reviving their love of former days when Paducah had some notable skaters. Soon it will be of little moment whether there is ever an entertainment or not; for the skating enthusiast the four walls of the rink auditorium will bound all of social life; it looks to the mere onlooker who has watched the Bridge Whist of yester-year gradually merge into the Woman's club of this, that the skating rink will now beckon to the fairest maidens, and from the clubs' most sacred pedestals she will follow, leaving all things for the stranger. And the greatest of these is—which?

A Literary Treat at Woman's Club.

Montville Flowers, who comes to Paducah on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Woman's club, is president of the Flowers Academy of Speech and Dramatic Art in Cincinnati, and as a monologist and impersonator has a wide reputation. His interpretive recitals from masterpieces are especially fine. The adaptations are Mr. Flowers' own. He will give "Ben Hur" in Paducah and he is said to be at his best in the scenes from this great book. His Ben Hur is pronounced the greatest recital of its kind ever heard. Voice, ease and naturalness, factors to the perfection of a speaker, are happily united in Mr. Flowers, and he is an orator as well as an impersonator and reciter. Of Mr. Flowers the Louisville Courier-Journal says in part: "Mr. Flowers meets every demand, and meet them all pleasantly. He is an impersonator of great versatility and meets them all pleasantly. He tells the story in dialogue, culled from the original; happy in his choice of passages, because keeping in mind that the dramatic quality is the indispensable essential to prevent monotony. Thus he has a story full of spirit, and one that in itself holds an audience. He develops it with evenness, and throughout it wears the language of the author. Mr. Flowers' work, as presented in the series of recitals here, is something to be proud of."

Mrs. Boyd Hostess of Pretty Party.

A notable handsome function of the week was the card party given by Mrs. Frank Boyd on Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's club house. The entire upper floor was a charming color-effect in yellow. Chrysanthemums were used throughout in the decorations of the rooms. The yellow motif was carried out in the luncheon details and in the prizes. The first prize, a sofa pillow embroidered in yellow daisies, was won by Miss Anna Roswell in a cut with Mrs. William Marble. The lone-hand prize, a sofa pillow in yellow leather, went to Miss Faith Langstaff. Bunches of yellow and white chrysanthemums tied with yellow ribbons were presented to Mrs. Elizabeth Austin, Miss Myrtle Greer, Miss Frances Wallace and Miss Blanche Hills, who assisted Mrs. Boyd in keeping the game score. There were 25 tables at euchre, and a number of guests came for the luncheon after the game.

Beautiful Silver Jubilee Reception.

An especially notable social function and one of the largest ever given in Paducah, was the reception tendered the Rev. Father H. W. Jansen by the congregation of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church on Tuesday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall in celebration of the Silver Jubilee of his pastorate of the church. It was a spontaneous and beautiful tribute to the nobility and power of a simple life of service, and friends of Father Jansen from other churches as well as those not church members, vied with his own people in making it an occasion worthy of the man and the priest. The hall was beautifully and elaborately decorated in the southern smilax and white chrysanthemums. An arch of white festooned with green and lettered in silver "1888—Silver Jubilee—1907" was at the end of the hall where the receiving party stood. An orchestra played during the evening. An elaborate and delightful luncheon was served in the dining-room. The prettily decorated punch table was arranged in an alcove.

In the receiving line with Father Jansen were:

Mr. John T. Donovan and Miss Flora Glauber; John J. Dorian and Miss Bertha Hill; Frank M. Fisher and Mrs. John Atkins; A. R. Grouse and Miss Ella Hill; R. D. MacMillen and Mrs. MacMillen; Edwin J. Paxton and Mrs. J. T. Donovan; Morton Hand and Miss Sadie Paxton; P. F. Lally and Miss Mary Geagan; Ed Farley and Miss Rena Bernard; Fred Flannigan and Miss Rosella Farley; J. L. Wolfe and Miss Mary Haas; Ed Hannan and Mrs. Pat Lally; A. W. Greif and Mrs. Hoffmann; Richard Geagan and Miss Maggie Lydon. Misses Mary Dorian, Anne Lydon and Catherine Donovan presided over the guest book, in which all visitors were asked to register as they entered the hall. At the door the visitors were welcomed by Misses Frances Clark, Gertrude Fisher, Maggie Donnigan and Carrie Warren. Mrs. R. T. Lightfoot had charge of the dining room. Mrs. Joseph L. Wolff, Mrs. John Dicke and Mrs. Wilford Rogers served coffee. Mrs. John Seck and Mrs. John Lane invited the guests into the dining room. Mrs. William Lydon had charge of the kitchen. Mrs. George Ochelslaeger presided over the punch bowl, assisted by Misses Flora Pettit, Isabella Mohan and Emma Creemans. The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy

the pupils and the older members of the congregation were received in the afternoon. A pretty musical program was rendered by the pupils.

Father Jansen was presented with an automobile, a handsome suit of clothes and a souvenir book in which the guests had registered, and the silver mounted fountain pen with which the names were written. The book contained a sketch of the church, picture of the old church and the present one and a picture of Father Jansen. It was beautifully illuminated in white and silver. The presentation was made by Mr. J. T. Donovan. The committee who arranged the entertainment consisted of Mrs. John J. Dorian, Mrs. R. T. Lightfoot and Mr. J. T. Donovan. Mr. George F. Welkel was chairman of the committee which bought the automobile. Mrs. A. R. Grouse was chairman of the decoration committee.

Matinee Musical Club.

One of the most attractive musical entertainments of the season was presented by the Matinee Musical club on Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's club auditorium, under the lead of Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis and Miss Courtie Puryear. "National Music" was the subject, and the national airs of various lands were delightfully featured by some of Paducah's best talent. "The Star Spangled Banner" was given by Misses Shelton, Puryear, Dryfuss and Mrs. James Weille. "Scots Wha Hae W' Wallace Bled" was sung by Miss Mabel Shelton. Mr. Mac Donald gave "The Watch on the Rhine." The national airs of Mexico and Japan were played by Mrs. Upton. Mrs. James Weille rendered "Rule Britannica" and the "National Hymn of Spain." Miss Letha Puryear gave Ireland's pathetic "The Harp that once thro' Tara's Halls." Denmark's "King Christian" stood beside the mast" was sung by Miss Dryfuss. Mrs. W. C. Gray gave the "National Hymn of Italy" and the "Marseillaise Hymn" was sung by Miss Puryear. Mrs. George B. Hart, Messrs. Robinson and Mac Donald. "America" was given with patriotic enthusiasm by the entire audience in closing.

Social Tea at Woman's Club.

A delightful "Social Tea" was given at the Woman's club house on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. It was the first open meeting of the Philanthropy department. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and light refreshments were served. An attractive musical program was rendered. The receiving party were: Mesdames Jacob Wallerstein, John Keller, Henry Hughes, Frank Scott, Frank Boyd, James Rudy, Charles Kiger, Mrs. Weille and Miss Helen Lowry. Mrs. R. T. Lightfoot presided at the tea table. Assisting her were: Mrs. Henry Rudy, Mrs. Edward Bringham, Miss Willie Blanche Asher of Atlanta, Ga., Frances Wallace, Belle Cave, Phillip Hughes, Lillie May Winstead, Carline Sowell.

Informal Card Party for Visitors.

Mrs. William Marble entertained informally at cards at her apartments, 519 Kentucky, Ave., in compliment to Mrs. Lester Fossick and Miss Willie Blanche Asher, of Atlanta, Ga., guests of Miss Clara Thompson and Miss Corinne Winstead. The guests of honor were each presented with pretty prizes. A delightful luncheon was served.

Gift to Woman's Club.

A handsome bronze statue of Flora has been presented to the Woman's Club by Mr. Sydney Loeb. It is a graceful life-sized figure bearing a tray of flowers. It has been placed in the hall of the club house.

Pop Corn Party for Visitors.

Miss Georgia Husbands gave a pleasantly informal party on Wednesday evening at her home in Tyler in honor of Miss Maud Lyles of Symsonia. Delightful refreshments were served.

Forestry Association Launched.

The Paducah Forestry Association met on Wednesday afternoon in the Woman's Club House, 608 Kentucky Ave., and completed the organization. The officers are: Mr. John S. Bleeker, president; Capt. Harrison Watts, vice-president; Miss Adeline Morton, secretary; Mr. Emmett S. Bagby, treasurer. The meetings will be subject to the call of the president. The work of the Association will be conducted by the working committee under the direction of the executive committee and Mrs. Robert Phillips, of the State Forestry committee. Fifteen committees were named and the chairman of each appointed by the president. The association begins with 37 charter members.

Reception for State Grand Officers.

The Order of Eastern Star gave a reception on Wednesday evening at the lodge room in the Fraternity

What Does Your Mirror Say?

Does it cheerfully report an abundance of beautiful, well kept hair or does it regretfully tell the story of hair neglect?

Your Mirror may be anxious to please, but if you permit your friends to see dull, brittle and lusterless hair, with possibly dandruff and falling hair, your mirror will have to reflect the same condition.

All of these unfortunate EFFECTS can be overcome by destroying their CAUSE with

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Remedy That "Kills the Dandruff Germ".

Dandruff, with its consequent hair injury and hair loss, is now known to be a highly contagious germ disease. It is caused by an invisible growth of vegetable character that finds lodgement in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. This growth disturbs the functions of the sebaceous glands, causing excessive oiliness or extreme dryness of the hair. It also sets up an inflammatory process that extends down the follicle to the papilla, where the adhesions are loosened and the hair slips out. The value of Newbro's Herpicide in such cases is quite extraordinary. Its intelligent use will correct every condition short of chronic baldness and thus permit the hair to resume its natural luster and abundance.

building in honor of Mrs. Harry G. Johnston and Mrs. Anna Wright, members of the order who have recently been made Worthy Grand Matron and Grand Chaplain of Kentucky. The room was attractive in the colors red and green, and a pleasant program was rendered. The guests of honor were presented with handsome silver cream ladels. Mr. E. W. Whittemore made the presentation speech. Mrs. I. O. Walker, Misses Esther Boyd and Belle Ford presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Walker presented each of the guests of honor with a bunch of American Beauty roses. An elegant supper was served in the banquet hall late in the evening.

Literary Morning at Woman's Club.

Gerhart Hauptmann and Herman Sudermann were the modern day authors discussed at the meeting of the Literary department of the Woman's Club on Friday morning. Mrs. James A. Rudy gave an interesting presentation of Hauptmann and Sudermann was attractively featured by Mrs. Mary Moequot Watson. Miss Jennie Gilson gave clever resume of Hauptmann's play, "The Sunken Bell."

Kalosophic Club.

The Kalosophic Club presented an attractive program for discussion at Friday morning's meeting in the Woman's Club House, 608 Kentucky Avenue. "Athens and the Athenians" was featured by Miss Philippa Hughes. "The Acropolis" was described by Miss Faith Langstaff. Miss Ethel Morrow's paper on "The Parthenon" was read by Miss Lula Reed. Mrs. Henry Rudy discussed "Current Events."

In the absence of Miss Ethel Morrow from the city Mrs. Henry Rudy is acting president of the Kalosophic Club.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic Club held an interesting meeting on Tuesday morning at the club house in the Carnegie library. The XII Dynasty of the old Theban Kingdom was the general subject for the morning. "The Amenemhats. Lake Moeris" was featured by Miss Mattie Fowler. Mrs. Muscoe Burnett gave an account of "The Usertens. Monuments." Helioptoles, the City of the Sun" was described by Mrs. Lillard Sanders. Out of town guests of the club were: Mrs.
